

The Ocean in a High-CO₂ World

Ocean Acidification

6th International Science Symposium

13–16 OCTOBER 2026 • TĀKINA WELLINGTON

Application to Host Events Outside the Symposium

This application is for individuals or organisations interested in hosting an event before or after the Symposium, such as an all-day training session or meeting. Depending on requirements, our local symposium organisers may be able to secure space at Victoria University of Wellington or at Earth Sciences New Zealand's Greta Point Campus for the event.

A venue hire charge will apply, determined by the host organisations. We will confirm costs once your requirements are known.

To submit, complete this form and upload it via the Symposium website using the appropriate submit button by 23 January 2026. Decisions will be announced in the first half of February 2026.
